THE COMMUNISTS.

Meeting to Arouse the Second Assembly District.

Startling Words for the City Authorities.

RESOLVED TO HAVE BREAD.

Several Addresses from Members of the Committee of Safety-What the Commane Intends To Do.

The Communists, it would seem, are moving and rganizing in reality, and, judging from the peeches delivered at the meeting which took place last evening at Cosmopolitan Hall, corner of Catharine street and East Broadway, are deternined upon asserting their rights to assemble in the public parks of the city. Quite a number of the organization were present, representing almost every nationality. Appliance was freely given whenever any of the speakers alluded to the olice Commissioners or the police as tyrants and CITIZEN BANKS was on hand at an early hour, and as each new comer made his appearance he would immediately rise and grasp him by the hand, and at the same me whisper to him in a subdued tone information of a secret character. About eight o'clock there were about sixty or seventy present. Stizen Banks then stepped up to the table at the further end of the room and called the meeting to order. He proposed that Mr. Roger Burke be requested to act as chairman. The motion was conded and carried, and

MR. BUBKE MOUNTED THE ROSTRUM. All eyes were now turned upon Citizen Burke, d as he prepared to deliver his address of thanks a faint applause greeted his ears. As ered himself of the following speech:-

CITIZEN BURKE'S SPEECH. GENTLEMEN-I am thankful to you for having elected me to this position. It is not the first time that I have held similar positions among the workingmen. I am sorry to state that last evening one of our meetings was broken up by the police, and several of those present were alled." I am happy to be able to announce to you that every district in the city is undergoing a horough organization. This district, however, is more behind than any other, and we must endeavor to perfect our organization here also. The police have endeavored again to infringe upon our this evening, they were sent around to dissuade the workingmen from putting in an appearance. I understand that at this very moment policemen in citizens' clothes are placed around the building to watch us, and that detectives are also in our very midst prepared to note down every word we wery midst prepared to note down every word we may give utterance to. The Committee of Safety desire, for the purpose of perfecting our organization, that every one present this evening step forward and inscribe his name upon the roll. At this juncture one of the audience requested information of the speaker as to whether or not the police of New York city had been empowered to amend the constitution of the United States so as to prevent the right of free speech. This remark was received with applicate by the entire assemblage.

then introduced his remarks, Chizen Burks then introduced Citizen Elliott.

Citizen Elliott announced the fact that the German wards were already thoroughly organized, and that the only thing which remained to secure a thorough and effective organization was the enrolment of the English speaking wards. The proper manner of procedure, the speaker stated, for those in sympathy with the movement now on foot to redeem the workingmen was to perfect district and ward organizations throughout the entire city, the same as is done previous to the holding of the political elections. Rumors had gone abroad that the Committee of Safety had determined to resign their trust, but such was not the case. The would always remain in active existence. The members of that committee had pledged themselves to remain true to the principles which led to their organization. They would never relax their efforts, but would work night and day to promote the great cause of the workingmen. Not one of them sought any office, and they were all pledged never to accept any. The Committee of Safety have, moreover, determined to carry the cases of the men now in custody who were arrested for participation in the meeting on Tuesday last before the State courts, and no lator nor expense would be spared to tree them from bondage. On last Thesday the country at large had seen a most dastardly outrage perpetrated upon the rights of the workingmen.

When a demonstration is made again let the workingmen go out in large numbers, so that the police or military will not dare to resist them. (Loud applause.) I request that those who are present here to die evening will, before they depast come forward and sign the roil so that we can form a good "deleus to perfect a solid organization in this ward.

The time has come and we must enter how he at the point of death.

We must resist as workingmen, and as such we must endeavor to put down all monopolies. Under the present laws which govern society how much better off are we than the former slaves in the south? (Voice in the audience—'They were well fed, and they were cared for and provided with work, which we are denied. We are not even as fortunate as were the negroes. Talk about free America and the Stars and Stripes is Why, the Stars and Stripes are in disgrace. We must prepare to Fight Thoss of Posso To US.

We are tired of political demagogues. We have had enough of them. They talk about the Communists, The Communists are the only ones who look after the rights of the workingmen. (Loud applanse, Nowadays the workingman who dare to say a word draws down upon his head the anger of the press. The competitive system in existence makes all the trouble. We want the system of universal co-operation, and to this opinion we must all incline. The man who does not labor robs the man who does. He hires you for his good only and robs you of the profit which belongs to your labor. Independent action on the part of the workingmen is the only way we can gain our ends, and if we cannot meet pacincally we must go armed to our meetings.

Citizen Samuels, of the Committee of Safety, then addressed the meeting, and was followed by Citizen Leander Thompson, chairman of the Committee of Safety, and Citizen McGuire. Subsequent to the speech of Citizen McGuire, Citizen Elhot offered and read the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:—

EESOLUTIONS.

Whereas we are passing through a great financial

Resolved, That we will support and sustain the Committee of Saiety in its work of accuring the above objects and the rights of all the people.

And the rights of all the people.

After a somewhat lengthy address from Mr. McMicken, of the Committee of Safety, the meeting adjourned. Those who had not already signed the roll of membership were then again invited to do so. Some fears had been entertained that when the meeting was over some altercation, if not a serious disturbance, might occur between the police and the men who had attended the meeting, but nothing took place that could in any way be considered reprehensible. The men quietly dispersed to their homes, without even hovering around the building.

Robert Walker, the original din, went on the stand and told a long story of the misconduct of Mrs. "Hardin" while she was his wife, including petty larcenies, intoxication and other like minor offences. The examination was then adjourned until next Saturday.

THE LAW OF ENLISTMENT.

A Very Carlous Case-Deserting from the Army, Going Back Again and Now Seeking an Honorable Discharge.

The case of John I. Ritter came yesterday before Judge Blatchford, on habeas corpus, in the United States District Court. It appears that Ritter enago, and had deserted with several men at Castle Garden, in this city. His release from the army was sought for on the ground that, at the time of his enlistment, he was a minor. It appears that Ritter, since he deserted, has resided in this city, has been married and has got a family. Fearing detection it seems he permitted himself to be blackmailed by a person who was aware of his descrition; but this kind of thing having gone on too far, he got legal advice about two weeks ago to the effect that if the authorities caused his arrest and compelled him to re-enter the service, he could, without difficulty, obtain his discharge on the ground that he was not of age at the time he became a soider. To this advice Ritter assented, and the result was, as it is claimed, that the blackmailing party gave information when led to Ritter's arrest. Ritter was but nineteen years of age when he enlisted, as appeared by the testimony taken before Commissioner Shields. Upon this state of facts counsel asked for Ritter's discnarge. In reply to the Judge, the District Attorney said he would let the matter rest on the evidence, as he did not see what objection he could interpose. has been married and has got a family. Fearing the District Attorney said he would let the matter rest on the evidence, as he did not see what objection he could interpose.

Judge Blatchford told the counsel that the statute enacting that any person enlisting under 21 years could not be legally held was passed about 12 months ago, and when Ritter enlisted, in 186, the law was that the enlistment of a person 18 years old was legal. The admission had been made that Ritter was 19 years of age when he enlisted, and this being so, the Judge said he could not discharge the defendant. The man's oath was conclusive as to his age.

This statement evidently surprised the learned counsel, who did not appear to be aware of the existence of such a law, and he then called for the discharge of the defendant on the ground that he was drunk at the line of his enlistment.

Judge Blatchford, in referring the Carbon back to Commissioner Snight for the reaking of consure on the nation of the enlisting men when in a state of intoxication. According to his experience upon the Bench such cases had too frequently occurred.

EX-SHERIFF BRENNAN'S FEES.

How the Old Thing Worked and How It Don't Work-The Effort to Cut Down Sheriffs' Charges. While the late Sheriff of the city and county of

New York is "chewing the cud of sweet and bitter fancy" in Ludlow Street Jail his bill for the last three quarters of 1872 is not eschewed in the courts. The bill amounts to about $52,000, and some time since application was made before Judge Daniels, in Supreme Court, Chambers, for a mandamus against County Auditor Earle to audit the bill and the Comptroller to pay it. The subject came up again for reargument vesterday before the same Judge. Mr. Carter, who appeared in opposition to the application, submitted various affidavits, but containing no facts additional to those published

Judge. Mr. Carter, who appeared in opposition to the application, submitted various affidavits, but containing no facts additional to those published in the Herald when the case was first brought to judicial notice, and then went on to state that the Sheriff is required to report to the Secretary of State all convictions had in this county, and his compensation for doing so is a county charge. The statute calls on him to report convictions in the Oyer and Terminer and General Sessions, and originally it called on him to report convictions in the Special Sessions, and all these would amount to about 25,000 a year. An amendment, however, required him, in addition, to

had before magistrates having criminal jurisdiction, and any conviction had before a police magistrate should, for this purpose, be deemed had in a Court of Special Sessions. In obedience to that the Sheriff was justified in reporting all convictions in the county, even for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, which comprise the immense majority of convictions. That being the law, the sheriff makes his report for nine months of 1872, and charges for 23,000 convictions in Oyer and Terminer, General Sessions and Special Sessions, although the fact is that he reported only 20,000. Again, the Sheriff charges, in addition, for reporting 26,000 convictions in the police courts as convictions in the police courts as convictions in courts of Special Sessions; so that, having reported all convictions in the police courts as convictions in courts of Special Sessions; so that, having reported all convictions in the police courts and then his charge for reporting 26,000 in the Police Courts is a pure fiction and labrication.

THE NEXT OVERCHARGE

is of still greater magnitude. It is for conveying prisoners to other prisons than State Prison. It was his duty to excess and then his charge for reporting 26,000 in the Police Courts is a pure fiction and labrication.

is of still greater magnitude. It is for conveying the p andited these bills as, Supervisors, and yet when the County Auditor is asked to perform his duty in auditing he is met with gross accusations. There was no way of enforcing the claim for services which the Supervisors certify was done but by mandamus. The mandamus would not secure payment—it was a step toward it. The relator was not called upon to follow the respondent into the irrelevant issue raised; the question was, were these bills audited by the Supervisors' and, if so, the Auditor should certify it. When application is made to the paying officer the relator will be happy to join issue on the question whether the claims were just. Judge Daniels, after hearing the argument, took the papers, reserving his decision.

BUSINESS IN THE OTHER COURTS.

SUPREME COURT GENERAL TERM. The Price Divorce Suit.

Before Judge Potter. This is rather a novel suit, in which the well known wealthy brewer, Walter N. Price, sues for all the usual sensational points of similar cases in which wealth alnes itself to poverty, or education and refinement to ignorance and coarseness, or December expects pleasure and faithfulness in the December expects pleasure and laithfulness in the lap of May, are of a character exceptional to newspaper reporting, especially in the earlier stages of the developments. Mrs. Price, née Bridget Fallon—priceiess in the eyes of her lord—after a brief married life, having been selected from a beile of the kitchen to be the belle of the parlor, is now charged with infidelity to her liege lord, and also with the higher crime of an attempt to poison him. How far these serious charges can be maintained—and the story is a long and painful one—the result of the trial now pending before Judge Potter must determine. Meantime, from affidavits already submitted attesting the high character of Mr. Price, a motion for alimony and counsel fee has been denied and the custody of their child awarded to Mr. Price.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS.

The Tompkins Square Rioters. Before Judges Kilbreth, Flammer and Kasmire.

Benjamin Sugden, Peter Ackerman, Charles Green, Lorenzo Solestro, Jacob Eleknoff, Herman Zizacheisky, Thomas McGraw, Terence Donnelly, James Donohoe and Joseph Hoefflicher were at raigned at the bar of Special Sessions yesterday, charged with assault and battery on several different officers and with aiding and inciting riot. They were arrested last Tuesday, in and near Tompkins square, at the time of the workingmen's demonstration, and have been locked up in Essex Market Prison ever since. Counsellor Theodore E. Tominson appeared for all of them except Hoefficher and demanded for his chents a trial by jury. Their cases were, therefore, sent to the Court of General Sessions. Counsellor Price appeared for Hoefficher and asked that his case might be tried in the Court of Special Sessions. The trial was set down by the presiding magistrate for next Tuesday, when all the witnesses are expected to be present. The prisoners were then removed to the Tombs prison and are at present confined on the fourth tier of that institution. Some of them are accused of feionious assault and battery, while others have no complaint against them except meting and talking wildly in the streets. ferent officers and with aiding and inciting riot.

MARLEM POLICE COURT. -

More Masked Burglars Captured and the Proceeds of a Burglary on a Jewelry Establishment Recovered.

On Friday night Detective Clark, of the Twelfth precinct, saw two young men steal a bag of flour which was lying in front of the grocery store kept by Mr. Charles Mierisch, at No. 2.267 Third ave nue. The detective followed the thieves to 123d street, where he attempted to arrest them. They refused to accompany him to the station house, and the officer was obliged to draw his revolver before they could be induced to change their minds. When searched an astonishing discovery was made. On their persons were found a number of revolvers, a vast quantity of jewelry, watch movements, &c., evidently the proceeds of a burgiary perpetrated upon a jewelry store, and two black alpaca masks. The prisoners were taken to the Harlem Police Court, where they described themselves as John Williams, aged seventeen, carpenter, and John Patterson, aged elighteen, no occupation. They were committed to answer for the robbing of the grocery store, in default of $300 ball each. Both were alterward taken to the Central Office, where the plunder found upon them was inspected by Mr. Hank, the Ninth avenue jeweller, who was robbed last week. He was unable, however, to identify any portion of the property. street, where he attempted to arrest them. They

Bob Turner, of Potosi, Grant county, Wis. Albert. The inquest, which has just been concluded, revealed a bloodthirsty propensity on the part of Bob surpassing even that of the Bender family of murderers. The murdered man was killed with an axe, his head being nearly severed from his body, as he was coming out of a mineral hole in which he had been at work. He fell back speechless and never moved. The murderer then called to another brother, who was in an adjoining commenced climbing out. When he reached the surface he saw the body of his murdered brother Albert, and was about to run, when Bob seized him, and, showing the bloody axe, threatened to kill bim instantly unless he would swear to assist PUTTING THE BODY AWAY

ATTEMPTED THE LIPE OF HIS KERPER. The second of Turner's murders, which has just come to light, is that of Oincy Neely, a youth of Ellenboro. Bob Turner was there cutting hoop poles for Mr. Bell. On Tuesday, December 23, the boy started from Bell's to visit his mother, who re. sides in New California. His road lay through tim

The people residing in the neighborhood, having heard of Tenner's Murddengus propensity and knowing that young Neely had to pass near where he was at work, turned out on rriday last to hunt for Neely's remains. Eight men started from Bell's and searched the ground on each side of the road. When they arrived upon the premises where Turner had been chopping they found the body, which lay as it had tallen two weeks before. The position in which the body lay indicated the course the blow from the axe had taken. Several other mysterious murders having taken place in the localities in which Turner had been seen, Marshal Bennett visited the prisoner and asked him to confess if he had any hand in them. He finally confessed that he remembered killing two more. One was a stranger whom he had encountered in a deep ravine at the back of the Poor farm and thereupon attacked and murdered, hiding the body. The other man he met on the road to Muskadia, where he was going to get work. He says that the latter made threatening gestures, and he feared he was going to take his life; so he closed with him, and with a four pound weight which he carried in his pocket struck him two blows over the eyes, and killing him instantly. He dragged the body into the bushes, secreting it there.

New that he has confessed he delights to talk of the many persons he has killed. He gloats over the skill with which he has concealed their bodies, and declares that if they were got together there would be nearly forty of them.

NAVAL MATTERS

The United States sloop-of-war Juniata left the Navy Yard yesterday and dropped down to the Battery, near which she anchored. Her prepara tions for sea have almost been completed. Tomorrow she will receive her powder, and will probably sail for Key West on Tuesday. The Juni-The Dictator will be ready for sea to-merrow and will be convoyed to Key West by the Juniata. Business at the Navy Yard is comparatively dull. It is expected that further orders for the discharge of workmen will shortly be received. The Swatara, at New York, and the Quennebang at Philadelphia, will soon have their machinery completed. The boilers have just arrived in a three-masted schooner from Washington. The schooner also carries machinery for the Boston Navy Yard. The Roanoke monitor, which has gone into com-mission, will drop down to the Battery, or perhaps ierred to the Roanoke, as also the flag of the Vice Admiral.

The Minnesota, which it is understood will be the flag ship of the European squadron, is now ready to receive her officers. No orders have been received relative to her luture movements.

The engines of the last war vessel Florida have been completed by the contractors and placed on board. Sue has not gone into commission, and it is more than probable she will be held in reserve for any "emergency" that may arise.

The Tennessee is now at the Morgan Iron Works, Her engines are ready to be turned over. She will likely make a trial trip during the week. The torpedo beat constructed upon the designs of Admiral Porter is also at the Morgan Iron Works getting her machinery completed.

The Montauk is at the Quintard Iron Works being generally overhauled.

The grand naval review which was announced to take piace at Key West shortly will probably not come off.

Marine Disasters. SHIP SALADIN (of London), from St John, NB, for England is a wreek near Yarmouth, NS. She left St John Alban 12, deal laden, and suffered severely in gales, On the lith her sails blew away and the crew refused to work, Being on a lee shore and sea heavy, were compelled to beach her. The crew succeeded in landing. Ship lies on Stanwood's Bar, one mile north of Yarmouth lighthouse, and will probably be a total wreek.

and will probably be a total wreck.

Ship Corptiers, Howe, from Portland, Oregon, for Queenstown, was knocked down off Cape Horn, lettisoned about seven tons cargo (wheat), and put into Montevideo Nov 24, with bumps choked and a heavy list. A portion of the damaged cargo would be sold. Some cargo would doubtless be discharged and restowed, decks calked, and she would then proceed.

Schr Favorite (Br.) Jenkins, from Cornwallia, NS, for New York, arrived at Edgartown Jan 15 with loss of Jibboom.

SCHE J ALBERT, Smith, at Providence Jan 17 from Bowler's Rock, Va. reports that on the 15th sist, at 3 o'clock PM, Cape May bearing west 100 miles, came in collision with the schr Isaac Rich. Capt Freeman, of and from Salem for Philadelpha with a cargo of 18th, striking her a giancing blow on the port bow, carrying away her own jibboom, one dayit, and breaking cutwater, &c.
The Isaac Rich was cut down below her plank shear and aill her head gear carried away, anchor knocked off and the bow and stanchions carried away on the port side. The crew of the Isaac Rich jumped abaard the J Albert and were brought to Providence. One man fell overboard and swam to the bobstays and was handed on board. The Isaac Rich was seen for an hour after the collision, but the gale was so heavy that she could not be boarded.

Sche Minna (of Parmonth, NS), ashore on Winthrop neach, has been condemned, and was to be sold at auc-tion yesterday (17th).

tion yesterday (17th).

SMACK CHAS ROBERTS, of New London, ashore on Edgartown flats, has been lightened of her ballast, and a contract has been made to get her off for $250.

The Boston pilot boat Phantom remains on Nantasket beach, nearly as before reported. She is a strong hoat and holds together well. A slight examination shows that her copper is broken in one or two places, from her keel upward. The sea has cone down a great deal, and the Phantom will be patched up in the vicinity of her worst leaks in a day of two, so that possibly she may be floated off and into harbor before another storm. ATLANTIC CITY, NJ, Jan 16—A small schr is sunk on Brigantine Shoals. A wrecking schr has gone to her assistance.

CARDIFF, Jan 3—The Italian bark C Danovaro arrived here this afternoon from New York (grain) for orders, with damage to sails, spars, bulwarks, &c, and will dock here for repairs; she experienced heavy weather during the passage and lost one man overboard.

Deal, Jan 4—The Evandale, Scobbie, from London for Pensacola, has been supplied with an anchor. Pensacola, has been supplied with an anchor.

Dunnatz, Jan 3—The bark Amoy Parkman, from Baltimore, will commence to discharge her corn on Monday morning. She reports having encountered severe weather during the passace, and had the bulwarks on the starboard side carried away from poop to opposite the fore hatch, and on port side had bow or head rall broken, also a portion of the bulwark, with the paneling of the same: the topgallant gangway is also gone. It is expected that only a few quarters of her cargo, if any, are damaged.
